

Forty Days Of Rain
Roddy Frame

Intro

B E G#m
B E G#m

Verse

B
In the spring, when this thing began,
I was down, a dying man
E
And as I died and decayed, I pushed her away
G#m
saying why don't you stay ?

Verse

B
Days turned to dust and my heart ran dry,
A compromise was a tooth for an eye,
E
I was under a spell, how could I tell,
G#m
The truth from the lies.

Bridge

E G#m
And could this wretch really be restored,
E Ebm F#7
I went out west, and the rain it poured
E
And there appeared a king,
F# F#7
And he held his sword, over me.

G#m
40 days of rain
E B
Washed it away, Washed it away
F# G#m

I knew I d never be the same again

E

I was lost, but I m found,

B

lost but I m found

F#7

G#m

And until I felt the joy and the pain

E

I used to pray for the sun

B

to turn the night into day

F#7

Gdim

G#m

And now I kneel and feel the frost on the ground

E

And I rise and I pray,

B

F#

F#7

Rise and I pray, Rise and I pray

Verse

B

I kinda had a bad idea,
I slipped into my deepest fear

E

My room one oh one, the end of the run

G#m

The worst thing I d ever done

Verse

B

I couldn't get the pin back in
Bmaj7
Where did it end and where did I begin

E

I tried to call it a day, day after day

G#m

Bridge

E

G#m

And could this wretch, really be restored

E

Ebm

F#7

I went out west seeking for the sun and the rain in poured

E

And there appeared a king,
