Capo 3

[Intro]

| C F | Em G |
| C F | Em G |

[Verse 1]

C F Em G C
And you measure for wealth by the things you can hold
F Em G C
And your measure for love by the sweet things you re told
C F C G
And you live in the past or the dream that you re in
C F G C
And your selfishness is your cardinal sin

[Verse 2]

C F Em G C
And you want to be held with highest regard
F Em G C
It delights you so much if he s trying so hard
C F C G
And you try to conceal your ordinary ways
C F G C
With a smile or a shrug or some stolen cliché

[Chorus]

F G C
Cos don t you understand
F G C
And don t you look about
F G C
I m trying to take nothing from you
F Em G C F Em G
So why should you act so put out for me

[Verse 3]

C F Em G C
Cos emotionally you re the same basic trip
F Em G C
And you know that I know of the times that you ve slipped
C F C G
So don t try to impress me you re just pins and paint
C F G C
And don t try to charm me with things that you ain t

[Verse 4]

C F Em G C
And don t try to enchant me with your manner of dress
 F Em G C
Cos a monkey in silk is a monkey no less
C F C G
So measure for measure reflect on my said
C F G C
And when I won t see you then measure it dead

[Outro]

F G C
Cos don t you understand
 F G C
And don t you look about
 F G C
I m trying to take nothing from you
F Em G
So why should you act so put out
 F Em G C F Em G C
And sit there and wonder and doubt for me
F Em G C
(repeat and fade)
