come and slide outside your window loosen up and feel the grass grow, the wind blow, the moon she s a-glowin

and she s throwin down a wicked little smile

Chorus:

C7.....G

Don tcha wanna tip the apple cart over, baby?

Don tcha wanna shoot an arrow at the sky?

.....Em.....C

The fruit is throbbing on the vine.. so

.....Am.....C.....D

many castles to storm and so little time!

Floatin downstream

on a river laden up with prayer and doubt and dreams borne amongst the grit, the silt and salty things overlooked and too small to be loved

Chorus:

Don tcha wanna knock the apple cart over, baby?

oil up your favorite monkeywrench now!

the fruit is throbbing on the vine.. so many castles to storm and so little time!

At the rat race baby, I couldn't even find a parking space let the Joneses keep the whole damn chase and their golden treadmills for first place

Chorus

Don'tcha wanna knock the apple cart over, baby?

shoot another flaming arrow at the sky?

the fruit is throbbing on the vine.. so many castles to storm and so little time!

D.....D#

down with empire, up with Spring

back to smaller and better things!
