After the Fire (Townshend, 1985)

Dadd2 D Dadd2 D
After the fire the fire still burns,
 Dadd2 D Dadd2 D
the heart grows older but never ever learns.
 Dadd2 D Dadd2 D Dadd2 D
The memories smoulder and the soul always yearns,
 G D | D G | 2x
after the fire the fire still burns.

Dadd2 D G
I heard a voice asking what happens after the fire
 D(maj7) G
and then the sound of a breaking window and the scream of a tyre
 D(maj7) G
and then the sound of distant gun and the cry of a hungry child.
 D
The night is hot Dadd2 D
but nothing s gonna stop D G
this ga---ng going wild.

 D
After the fire the fire still burns,
 G
the heart grows older but never ever learns.
 D
The memories smoulder and the soul always yearns,
 G D | D G | 2x
after the fire the fire still burns.

D

I saw Matt Dillon in black and white

G

there ain't no colour in memories.

D

He rode his brother's Harley across the TV

G

while I was laughing at Dom deLuise.

D

G

Now I'm cycling all my video tapes, I'm crying and I'm joking.

D

I've gotta stop drinking, I've gotta stop thinking,

G

I've gotta stop smoking.

D

After the fire the fire still burns,

G

the heart grows older but never ever learns.

D

The memories smoulder and the soul always yearns,

G

after the fire

Gsus Hm

the fire still burns, raging through the pain,

blackening the promises, the tears and the rain.

G

The fire will burn

til the wind begins to turn

C

and it all begins again.

D

After the fire the fire still burns,

G

the heart grows older but never ever learns.

D

The memories smoulder and the soul always yearns,

G
