Roger McGuinn Together written by Roger McGuinn/Jacques Levy

Em C C/B
 Love was never good to him all his days were spent in shadows
Am D Em
 Standing near the carousel watching lovers spin around together
Em C C/B
 No one could remember why no one heard his lonely story
Am D Em
 Walking in the crowded streets past the couples holding hands together
G
 Together oh the music in the word and the feeling he could feel
D
 The rush of rivers flowing and the touch of something real
Em G
 Together together

D Em
 Dreaming of a tiny light is the distance of the night together
Em C C/B
 Keeping secrets to himself smiling at the conversation
Am D Em
 Dinner with an old time friend look at all the people there together
G Am C
 And then and then he met her and suddently his life was upside down
Em
 A summer party by the sea

C
 And all the time the fear that she would make him play the clown
Am F
 But oh how warm the look she gave and oh how sweet the song
D7
 He met her and his heart was swept along
Em C
 Nothing lives that can not die no one loves except forever
