Hello...you wanna cup of coffee?

Dm

I m sorry, would you like a cup of coffee?

G

Ok you take cream and sugar?

C

In truck stops and hamburger joints

In Cadillac limousines

Dm

In the company of has-beens

G

And bent-backs and sleeping forms

On pavement steps

C

In libraries and railway stations

In books and banks

Dm

In the pages of history

G

In suicidal cavalry attacks

C G/B Am

I recognise...

F

C

Myself in every stranger s eyes

C

And in wheelchairs by monuments

Under tube trains and commuter accidents

Dm

In council care and county courts

G

At Easter fairs and sea-side resorts

C

In drawing rooms and city morgues

In award winning photographs

Of life rafts in the China seas

Dm

In transit camps, under arc lamps

On unloading ramps

G

In faces blurred by rubber stamps

C G/B Am

I recognise...

F

C

Myself in every stranger's eyes

C

C

And now from where I stand

Dm

G

Upon this hill I plundered from the pool

C/E

I look around, I search the skies

Dm

G

I shade my eyes, so nearly blind

C

C/B

Am

And I see signs of half remembered days

G

F C/E

Dm

G

I hear bells that chime in strange familiar ways

C

C/B

Am

I recogn-A-A-A-A-A-ise...

F

C

The hope you kindle in your eyes

It's oh so easy now

F

G

As we lie here in the dark

Em

Nothing interferes it's obvious

Am

How to beat the tears

Dm

That threaten to snuff out

C

The spark of our love
