

Déjà Vu

Roger Waters

Intro: G

Primeira Parte:

G C
If i had been god
I would have rearranged the veins
In the face to make them more resistant
G
To alcohol and less prone to ageing
C
If i had been god
I would have sired many sons
And i would not have suffered the romans
G
To kill even one of them
C D Em
If i had been god
C G
With my staff and my rod
D
If i had been given the nod
C G
I believe i could have done a better job

Segunda Parte:

G C
If i were a drone
G C G
Patrolling foreign skies
C
With my electronic eyes for guidance
G
And the element of surprise
C D Em C G
I would be afraid to find someone home
D
Maybe a woman at a stove
Baking bread, making rice,
C
Or just boiling down some bones
G
If i were a drone

(C Cm G C D# G)

Terceira Parte:

D

The temple s in ruins
The bankers get fat

C

The buffalo s gone
And the mountain top s flat

D

The trout in the streams are all hermaphrodites

C

You lean to the left

G

But you vote to the right

Quarta Parte:

C

G

And it feels like déjà vu
The sun goes down

C

And i m still missing you

G

C

Counting the cost of love that got lost

D

And under my gulf stream
In circular pools

C

There s ninety-nine cents

G

C

Worth of drunkards and fools

Final: G C G C D C G