

Every strangers eyes

Roger Waters

Intro: C Am Dm G

C
In truck stops, and hamburger joints,
Am
In Cadillac limosines, in the company of
Dm
Has-beens and bent-backs
G
And sleeping forms on pavement steps,
C
In libraries and railway stations,
Am
In books and banks,
Dm
In the pages of history
G C Am
And suicidal cavalry attacks I recognize
F G C
Myself in every stranger s eyes.
C
And in wheelchairs by monuments,
Am
Under tube trains, commuter accidents,
Dm
In council care and county courts,
G
At Easter fairs and sea-side resorts,
C
In drawing rooms and city morgues,
Am
In award-winning photographs of life-rafts on the China Seas,
Dm
In transit camps, under arc lamps, on unloading ramps,
G C Am
And faces blurred by rubber stamps I recognize
F G C
Myself in every stranger s eyes.
C Am Dm
And now, from where I stand, upon this hill I ve
G plundered from the pool
C Am Dm
I look around, I search the sky, I shade my eyes so
G nearly blind
C C/G Am

And I've seen sights of half-remembered days, I

F Em Dm G

hear bells that chime in strange, familiar ways

C Am F G C

I recognize the hope you kindle in your eyes

(C F G Em Am Dm G)

C F G
It's oh, so easy now, as we lie here in the dark

Em Am

Nothing interferes, it's obvious how to beat the

Dm G

tears that threaten to snuff out the spark of our love.
