The Last Refugee
Roger Waters

[Intro] Eb C# G#
      Eb Bbm Cm
      Eb C# G#

Eb   Bbm
   Lie with me now
Cm
    Under lemon tree skies
 Eb   C#
Show me the shy, slow smile you keep hidden by warm brown eyes
 G#
Catch the sweet hover of lips just barely apart
      Eb   Bbm
And wonder at loves sweet ache
                        Cm
And the wild beat of my heart
Eb   C#   G#
Oh, rhapsody tearing me apart
        Eb   Bbm
And I dreamed I was saying goodbye to my child
         Cm   Eb
She was taking a last look at the sea
 C#
Wading through dreams, up to our knees in warm ocean swells

While bathing belles, soft beneath
 G#
Hard bitten shells punch their iPhones

Erasing the numbers of radon done lovers
                   Eb
And search the horizon
      Bbm
And you ll find my child

Down by the shore
 Cm
Digging a mound for a chain or a bone
 Eb   C#
Searching the sand for a relic washed up by the sea
            G#
