

Wait For Her
Roger Waters

[Intro] A D A

A

With a glass inlaid with gemstones

A

On a pool around the evening

D

Among the perfumed roses

A

Wait for her

A

With the patience of a packhorse

A

Loaded for the mountains

D

Like a stoic, noble prince

A

Wait for her

A

With seven pillows laid out on the stair

D

The scent of womens incense fills the air

A

Be calm, and wait for her

A

And do not flush the sparrows

A

That are nesting in her braids

D

All along the barricades

A

A A/F#

Wait for her

F#m

D

And if she comes soon

| A | A A A/F# |

Wait for her

F#m

D

And if she comes late

| A | % |

Wait

A

Let her be still

A

As a summer afternoon

D | A |

A garden in full bloom

A

Let her breathe in the air

A

That is foreign to her heart

D

Let her lips part

A

Wait for her

A

Take her to the balcony

A

See the moon soaked in milk

D

Hear the rustle of her silk

A

Wait for her

A

Don't let your eyes alight upon

A

The twin doves of her breast

D

Lest they take flight

A

Wait for her

A

A A/F#

Wait for her

F#m

D

And if she comes soon

| A | A A A/F# |

Wait for her

F#m

D

And if she comes late

| A | E

Wait, wait

(break)

A

Serve her water before wine

A

Do not touch her hand

D

A

Let your fingertips rest at her command

A

Speak softly as a flute would

A

To a fearful violin

D | A A A/F# |

Breathe out, breathe in

| Em | D | A | A A A/F# |
| F#m | D | A | E |

A

And as the echo fades

A

From that final fusillade

D A

Remember the promises you made
