

Dandelion Wine
Ron Sexsmith

Dandelion Wine " Ron Sexsmith

Great song. The verses are the the same as the first one unless otherwise marked.

[Intro]

G Am Em D x2

G Am
And when I think of her
Em C
It s with the warmest thoughts
G Am
I took so much from her
Em C
I really learned a lot
G
How to dust off my heart
D
How to make it shine
G D
How to take a field of dandelions
C G
And make dandelion wine

G Am Em D

Such sweet and simple days
Though bitter tasted the wine
We drank it anyways
For love had made it fine
When the world was young
When the road was bright
And the morning poured
Its golden light
Like dandelion wine

Cm G
Oh I believed in us
Cm G
Long before deceit and lust
D/F# Em
Had lost the trust

Am

Forgive me girl

D

Forgive me girl

Now when I sing to you
It s with a heavy heart
I took a love that was true
And tore it all apart
How can I let go
Of all those times?
With this memory
Of her hand in mine
And dandelion wine

C

G

And dandelion wine

G Am Em D x2

A Bm

Now when I sing to you

F#m D

It s with a heavy heart

A Bm

I took a love that was true

F#m D

And tore it all apart

A

How can I let go

E

Of all those times?

A

With this memory

E

Of her hand in mine

D

A

And dandelion wine

D

A

And dandelion wine

A Bm F#m E x2