Ron Sexsmith - Tears Behind the Shades

E A C#m B
Spent the whole night crying now the sun appears to be frayed
E A C#m B E
through dark lenses your eyes are shining tears behind the shades

E A C#m B
couldn't start it this morning and still our bed is unmade
E A C#m B E
through long silences short comings tears behind the shades

G E
maybe it's time we took a walk outside
G D A B
to clear your eyes a while at least until your eyes are dry

E A C#m B
though the sun ain't trying to shed any light down our way
E A C#m B E
now's no time for you to be hiding tears behind the shades

G E
maybe it's time we took a walk inside
G D A B
to search your eyes a while at least until we know we tried

E A C#m B
though the sun ain't trying but it's been cloudy all day
E A C#m B E
through dark lenses your eyes are shining tears behind the shades
