Rosemary Clooney

          D          F°  Em7          Edim  D          Bm7          E7
Waking skies at sunrise, evry sunset too,
D9          Bm7  C°      B7  E7      A9          D          A7
Seems to be bringing me memories of you.
D          F°  Em7          Edim      D          Bm7          E7
Here and there, ev rywhere, scenes that we once knew,
D          Em7  C°      B7  E7      A9          D          F#7
And they all just recall memories of you.

Bm                  G7                          Bm                  Bm7(5-)          E7
How I wish I could forget those happy yesteryears;
Bm          Bm7/E  E7(9)  E7      A7      Em7  A7
That have left a rosary of tears.
D          F°  Em      Edim      D          Bm7(5-)  E7
Your face beams in my dreams, in spite of all I do,
D          Em7  C°          B7  E7          A9          D
And ev rything seems to bring memories of you.
