Well, as promised here s that classic Rose Ate A Stone tune...well, kind of!

[and I did a little tidying up... -John (Porl there s no such thing as E# :)]

ADRENALINE

Basic Tabulation by Porl @

Okay, first of all, there are far to many versions of this song in existence for me to completely tabulate one of them, plus I m feeling lazy... SO what I ve done is to tabulate the three basic riffs used in all versions of the song, from which you should be able to assemble the mix which you prefer to play...

...there are also a few small riffs which I haven t tabulated but which are all derived from one or another of the riffs below, and shouldn t take you long to work out! ;{=}

Main Riff (NB: this is the riff which is slightly (ahem) derivative of the ToL main riff):

```
e:-----1100--0011003322-----|
B:----33-----11----11-----1133-|
G:--22--22-----|
D:00-----33-----|
```

Verse, Power Chords

(NB: for those of you not familiar with power chords, a quick lesson. The power chord is the simplest possible form of chord to play! Simply take one finger and place it on the correct note (eg. to play a D power chord, place a finger on the 5th fret of the A-string), then place another finger on the next string up (or down when looking at your fingers) two frets further up the neck (eg. to play a D, with one finger on the 5th of A, place another on the 7th of D). Now strum the two strings!! Easy!)

i.e. D = x-5-7-7-x-x-x (-ed .. I hold down 3 strings for power chords :)

The following power chords are used:

D = D:7 E = D:9 F = D:10 C = D:5
A:5 A:7 A:8 A:3

G = D:12
A:10

Here s where they go:

D E F
Another gift from god

D E F
Breathing deep religiously

D E F Dust.....

C E F
Splintering inside of me

D E F
Light speed.....

D E F Intensity.....

C E F
Driven by its purity

G
Cloud nine white line this time I m on Adrenaline

Solo riff:

e:-----001110001188888883333333-|
B:333333-----|

And there you go, it s DIY from there! Best of luck!
