Verse 1

Bbm                              C#5     Ebm
I m sitting here and thinking about this messy situation
Bbm                              C#5     Ebm
And how your stupid words have brought us only complications
Bbm                              C#5     Ebm
I should have known when you gave me the eye
C#                                            F
You just had your way didn t need to try

Bbm                              C#5     Ebm
And you just had so many words but nothing real to say
And that was something that I found but it was just too late
It seems I only think of you
C#                                            F
that s the crazy thing with all you put me through and

Bbm              Ebm
   I  -      don t believe
Ab                 C#         (F)
   It was me that made the first move
Bbm              Ebm
   I  -      don t believe
Ab                        C# (F)
That you did it to me once again
Bbm              Ebm
   I  -      don t believe
Ab              C#         (F)
You could leave something so good
F#
What more can I do?
F
  I leave it up to you

Bbm                                    C#5     Ebm
 It seems the less you speak The more I want you here with me
Bbm                                    C#5     Ebm
But something funny tells me that ain t how it s gonna be
Bbm                                    C#5     Ebm
So I pretend as though I never cared
C#                                            C                 F
And forget those times that we both have shared

Verse 4

Bbm                                      C#5           Ebm
    And you?ll  go out your way to break another sorry heart
    Like you did to me you planned it from the very start
    I better get a grip of myself
C#                                            C           F
This is killing me with no one else
C#                                            C           F
This is killing me with no one else
