

Breathe
Roxette

(Words and music by Per Gessle)

Intr: C G Am F G (2x)

I ve got to come down, I ve been awake for far too long
My eyes look torn, they were so strong
I wore the crown, I wrote the song, now it s fading
My heart was open like a window to a summer breeze

I breathed your love, I filled my lungs and veins
And I breathed your love until I felt the pain and like rain it slipped away

I tried to find out what love was really all about
Behind the curtain waits the sky
It s rare I feel enough to cry, I m drying up inside
My life was open like a window to the summer breeze

I breathed your love, I filled my lungs and veins
And I breathed your love until I met the pain and like rain it slipped away, just like a little rain...

Solo: Gm D# Bb Gm D# Bb Dm D# Bb
I breathed your love and nothing stayed the same Yes, I breathed your love and filled my heart in vain cos like rain it slipped away, just like rain it swept away
