My heart was open like a window to a summer breeze

C G Am F G
I breathed your love, I filled my lungs and veins
C G Am F G
And I breathed your love until I felt the pain

I tried to find out what love was really all about
C G Am F
Behind the curtain waits the sky
G C Am F C G
It s rare I feel enough to cry, I m drying up inside

My life was open like a window to the summer breeze

I breathed your love, I filled my lungs and veins
And I breathed your love until I met the pain and like rain it slipped away, just like a little rain...
