

June Afternoon
Roxette

(intro) G C D C
G Em C D

(verso 1)

G C D G C D C
Didn't I tell you everything is possible in this déjà vu
G C D G C D C
Try the riverboat, the carousel, feed the pigeons, barbecue
Em C G D Dsus4 D
Look at all the people, happy faces all around
Em C G D
Smiling, throwing kisses busy making lazy sounds

(refrão)

A D E D A
It's a bright June afternoon, it never gets dark
F#m D E
whaa whaa here comes the sun
A D E D A
Get your green, green tambourine, let's play in the park
F#m D E
whaa whaa here comes the sun

(verso 2)

Some folks are on blankets slowly daydreaming and reaching for their food
Let's go buy an icecream and a magazine with an attitude
And put on a cassette we can pretend that you are a star
Cos life's so very simple, just like la la la

(refrão)

(last line of chorus like this)

F#m D E C G
Whaa whaa here comes the sun, comes the sun
Em Bm
There's a painter painting his masterpiece
Em Bm7
There are some squirrels jumping in the trees
C G
There's a wide eyed boy with a red balloon
Bm D
All my life I've longed for this afternoon

(refrão)
