The Clown

I was a clown when I thought I had found A love for me and only me but she laughed at the clown turned him down turned him down

I never frown ah, ah, ah, I m the clown for it breaks my heart I play the part of a clown runnin round trouble bound I m the clown

I wander all around, wondering if you ever cared I go from place to place, I look from face to face hoping that you will be there

All over town the word is out, it s all around that I love her still guess I always will I m the clown runnin round trouble bound I m the clown
