

Harlem Woman
Roy Orbison

Harlem Woman

E G#m
The woman is out on her own.

F#m B7
Walking the streets, sad and alone.

E G#m
Yes she sells herself

F#m B7
For nickels and dimes, these are hard times.

E A E A E
For a Harlem woman. Harlem woman.

E B7
Yes you work at night. I have held you tight.
But you re not aware of how much I care.

E A
No you can t see your baby s been hungry and cold.

Am E B7
So long nights through, go on and do what you must do,

E A E A E
I love you. I love you. Harlem woman. Harlem woman.

E F#m A E
Sometimes I cry, but I ll get by till your mine alone.

F#m D F#m B7
So carry on to other arms, tender but strong.

F#m C B7
Till you belong to me

E A7 G#m
Harlem woman hang on. I ll take you away.

B G#m B
Someday I ll set you free to be with only me.

F#m E B
Till then I ll know, Lord knows, I ll know

E A E
They can buy the body but not the soul of my Harlem woman

A E A E
Harlem woman, Harlem woman

B E
Hang on

by: JosÃ© Duarte
jtduartel@gmail.com