

Hound Dog Man
Roy Orbison

Hound Dog Man

A D A E F#m E A
Hey, hound dog man, where you been now where you been D A E F#m E A
I wish that you were back, it was too good to ever end
D A
Once in awhile someone like you
F#m D
Will give everything for what you want to do

Chorus:

A D A E F#m E A
Hey, hound dog man, my old friend, play it again
A D A E F#m E A
Hey, hound dog man, my old friend, play it again

He gave the world a whole lot of joy, now that ain't bad for a country boy
I just knew you could not learn, the way you sang rock and roll and blues
I still think about these things and the memory that it brings

Chorus

Sometimes I think about James Dean, Sammy Cook and my teenage queen.
Do run, do run, do run, Marilyn Monroe and hot rod fun
I still think about these things
and the memory that it brings

Chorus
