Intro: C C* C

Verse:

C G7
That picture that you drew of me, I want to get it framed,
F C
Or stick it to the fridge with magnets, that spell out your name.
G7
My eyes aren t green, my hair s not black, I only have two hands.
F C
My head is on my shoulders, and my feet aren t made of sand.

Chorus:

Dm G
But I ll tell you what, it s more like me,
Dm G G7
Than any... thing I ve seen.

Verse:

C G7
If toys could talk, I bet they d say, they d never felt so loved,
F C
The cars with chrome, the bears with bows, forever kissed and hugged.
C G7
And I love the way you eat your treats, you save the best till last.
F C
You ponder to enjoy your chocolates, and never go too fast.

Chorus:

And I ll tell you what, I think it s true.

Dm G G7 F
Us grown-ups, should be like you.

F G C
And think our actions through, and see the world like you do.
