

More Rock N Roll
Ruarri Joseph

This is my favourite song from Ruarri Joseph s debut album Tales of Grime and Grit . It is also deliciously simple, so it is easy to master!.

Standard Tuning, Capo 2.

Intro: C C6 C C C6 C

Verse (1):

C
I know there s a party out there,
F
Somewhere for crashers and burners to let down their hair,
G
The red eye reduction is failing production,
C
There s smoke shadows everywhere.
C
I could go along for a while,
F
And talk to my friends and their friends and their friends and that smile,
G
It s not that I m better, or cooler, or clever,
C C7
In fact I m a geek without style.

Chorus:

F
The ashtrays are empty, there s shandies aplenty,
G Am
I wish I was more rock and roll.
G
But my eyes are adrift as my mind wanders off,
F C
Into visions of blankets and coal.
F G
The sun sets for reasons it s tired and it s pleasing itself,

Am

What an ideal life.

G

I may look the part but I know in my heart,

C

That I'd rather be home with the wife.

Verse (2):

C

The girls hang on necks of the boys,

F

The boys act all coy with their beer and their cigarettes of joy,

G

It takes me way back to a time when I'd stay when I'm young,

C

And that was just yesterday.

C

There's nothing wrong with the affair,

F

It's just that my hair is all tangled in need of repair,

G

I may get some glasses and sell backstage passes

C

C7

To those who can deal with the noise.

Chorus

Bridge:

C

F

C

La la la lai la lai, la la lai lai la lai,

C

La la la lai la lai, la la lai lai la lai.

F

G

La la la lai la lai, la la lai lai la lai,

Am

La la la lai la lai,

Chorus:

G

Oh I may look the part but I know in my heart

C

That I'd rather be home with the wife.

Bridge:
