G#m F#
I was a little boy i was a little child
G#m F#
I did not dress my own you covered me in white
G#m F#
Before you sent me out told me where not to go
G#m F#
You d pack my lunch and say God bless you on the road

G#m B F#
Ooooooh, ooh

G#m F#
When i was on my own i wandered far from home
G#m F#
There were the wildest beasts they d strip you to the bone
G#m F#
But they did not want me i smelled too much of home
G#m F#
So then i moved along i guess i m meant to roam

G#m B F#
Ooooooh, ooh

G#m F#
I took around the bend and came across a town
G#m F#
The people made of stone the only folks around
G#m F#
I couldn t understand why such a lovely world
G#m F#
Could tolerate a crowd that didn t love their own

G#m B F#
Ooooooh, ooh

G#m F#
So many years have passed from stepping on the road
G#m F#

Still haven t got a clue of what is food or foe

G#m
