

Between My Legs
Rufus Wainwright

A

You can go out, dancing
And I ll write about you, dancing without you

G A
And I ll shed a tear between my legs.

A

When you were here, I missed you
Now that you re away, I m out there without you

G A
And I shed a tear between my legs.

A

Though we live in the same city,

G A
You live in another state, far away from me and all of my unfaded charms

E A
But when the rocket ships all fall, and the bridges, they all buckle,

Bm E
And everybody s packing up their station wagons

A
There s a number you can call, like a breast that you can suckle

Bm E
And we quietly will exit as it all is happening

A

Again I will pray with one thing
Will I walk away from love knowing nothing

G A
Wearing my heart between my legs

A

But when I know you re naked
Lying on my bed while I m at the piano

G A
All I can say is I can t fake it

E A
When the rocket ships all fall, and the bridges, they all buckle

Bm E
And everybody s packing up their station wagons

A
There s a number you can call, like a breast that you can suckle

Bm E
And quietly we ll exit as it all is happening again

A Bm
Cause there s a river running underground,

E

A

Underneath the town towards the sea,

Bm

That only I know all about

A

On which from this city, we can flee
