Fight To Keep Run River North

First tab. LOVE THIS SONG

I left my heart on the top of a window sill It fell apart when the winds pulled it down On the ground where the sun drove the colors deep In the summer heat, the colors seem to drown D But you pulled up the colors with a simple tune You breathed a song and you dusted off the sand You put the pieces on your sleeve, you gave my heart to me It looked so pretty that I fell upon my knees It looked so pretty that I fell upon my knees And from the ground I saw your face You spoke of love and you sang of grace But come the night when the light is gone E Its in the dark that my deeds are done What I ve done in darkness, I must turn away This mended heart was meant for so much more Though the wind is telling me that it s ok I ll stand my ground till I hear the kingdom come So I will fight to keep the fire burning in the night For I found words to keep me still And though I m prone to go and make the same mistakes
