And The Accordions Played Runrig

Α

See the bracken green on the hills

Ε

See the gifts of every summer

D

Suns sinking low in the long grass

Α

Always rising and falling down

A

There s bluebells growing under the trees

Е

And I will be there in June

D

I will walk back down the river

Δ

To some unknown salvation

F#m

Taking me back again

Α

Memories of the incomplete

F#m

The birch, the oak, the rowan

C#m

And the accordions played down in the hall

Е

By the riverside

C#m

As if God hadn t happened at all

A

Stealing heaven from a moon-lit door

F#m

Taking me back down the railroad tracks

E

To get lost in it all

Α

On young ploughed fields I kissed your eyes

Е

A crown of songs around your head

D

And by the railings at the harbor wall

Α

The radios played

Α

Never thought I could look upon

Е

Something so beautiful, so pure

D

Brighter than sun on snow

Α

In some new enchanted garden

F#m

She said we ve been here before

Α

As the skies are slashed by flames

F#m

Our citadels come crashing down

C#m

A constant sea, a war of waves

Е

Lay down your life for me

C#m

Lay down your love again

Α

We ll talk it over

F#m

And we ll waken

Like kings some day
