

And The Accordions Played

Runrig

G

See the bracken green on the hills

D

See the gifts of every summer

C

Suns sinking low in the long grass

G

Always rising and falling down

G

There s bluebells growing under the trees

D

And I will be there in June

C

I will walk back down the river

G

To some unknown salvation

Em

Taking me back again

G

Memories of the incomplete

Em

The birch, the oak, the rowan

Bm

And the accordions played down in the hall

D

By the riverside

Bm

As if God hadn t happened at all

G

Stealing heaven from a moon-lit door

Em

Taking me back down the railroad tracks

D

To get lost in it all

G

On young ploughed fields I kissed your eyes

D

A crown of songs around your head

C

And by the railings at the harbor wall

G

The radios played

G

Never thought I could look upon

D

Something so beautiful, so pure

C

Brighter than sun on snow

G

In some new enchanted garden

Em

She said we've been here before

G

As the skies are slashed by flames

Em

Our citadels come crashing down

Bm

A constant sea, a war of waves

D

Lay down your life for me

Bm

Lay down your love again

G

We'll talk it over

Em

And we'll waken

C

Like kings some day

Em D

And the accoooooooooordions played

Em C

And the accoooooooooordions played

X2

Em D

And the accoooooooooordions played
