

Edge Of The World Runrig

Runrig: Edge of the World
Standard Tuning

I quite like this one, it's got a nice upbeat feel to it, the chords seem quite straightforward.

For the intro i just play G chord.

G D G
All the homes on the globe are like television in your eyes
 C Em C Em Am D
A cross guarding your heart the living years a sacrifice
 Em C G D
A shiver at the door in the night, clouds cross a black moonlight
C D
Rushing on down to the sound of a turning world

G D G
There's a south by south westerly force eight coming in strong
 C Em C Em Am D
Across the continental shelf from the cold grey Malin beyond
 Em C
The need to keep control
 G D Em
The need to stand alone at the edge of the world

D Em
At the edge of the world
D G C D G C Am D
At the edge of the (ha-a-a-a ra-a-a-a) (ha-a-a-a ra-a-a-a-a-)

G D G
The adrenalin infrastructure bringing on it's troubles some more
 C Em C Em Am D
All the laws of the jungle stranded on your latest shore
 Em C
But the waves hold the healer force
 G D
The years disappear like a ghost
C D
Somewhere out of the sight of the night and the light of day

G D G
Now civilisation groans and the news reel cries
 C Em C Em Am D
Like a drowning man his life in front of his eyes
 Em C

Oh the need to keep control

G

D

Em

The need to bare the soul at the edge of the world

D

Em

On the edge of the world

D

G

C

D

G

C

Am

D

On the edge of the (ha-a-a-a ra-a-a-a-a) (ha-a-a-a-a ra-a-a-a-a-a)

Am

Em

C

G

D

And the man from St. Kilda went over the cliff on a winter s day

D

Em

At the edge of the world

D

Em

At the edge of the world

[Repeat to fade]

Enjoy!