Runrig - Flower of the West

[Intro] E

[Verse]

E

Sunburst

B E

On the morning moor

G#m

The light of God

A E

The heart of youth

I look around me

B A Asus4

My eyes find their rest on this garden

F#m B

The flower of the west

[Chorus]

E

The silent skies

E

An innocent heart

A G#m

Holding the moment away

F#m E

From time in the dark

E

All I see. All I know

A G#m

Is touching the sacred earth

F#m E

And warming the hallowed ground

[Bridge]

B A B F#m
Walk on Walk on

[Vocal section]

E

I survive the childhood universe

B

And I step the naked heath

E

Where the breathing of the vanished

B

Lies in acres round my feet

E

Loch Scadavagh Loch Fada

B

And the flatlands to the east

E

Where the dark blue mass of Eval

B

Meets the rising Rock of Lee

E

Between the Crogary and Maairi

B

I started to descend

E

Loch Aongais on my left hand side

B

I look across to Clett

E

Collies barking on the outrun

B

Dunlin dancing on the sand

A

Breakers show round Corran Vallique

D

F#m

B

And empty the Atlantic on the strand

[The rest of the verses/chorus use the same chords]

Sunrise

The colour frontier

The ageing light

The sight that knows no fear

I look over Orinsay to the Trumisgarry shore

To Aloter

And the road to Ahmore

The silent skies

An innocent heart

Holding the moment away

From time in the dark

All I see. All I know

Is touching the sacred earth

Warming the hallowed ground

Enjoy!
