Verse Two (same chords as verse one)
All things remain to ignore and outlive you
From the man in the moon to the greenhills outside your door
Alone you came so alone you must go now
There s no mountain on earth can ever outlive your soul

CHORUS

I know you well, you ll be nothing but grateful
Never let it be said they were spent in thoughtless ways
Warm winds blow cross the ties that bind forever
For a place in the sun and for the hearts of love a home

CHORUS

Enjoy!
