

Protect And Survive
Runrig

G# Eb

The red hot sun burns up the hill

Fm Eb

The winter s bride, the summer s king

Fm C#

I tramp these acres and I feel

Bbm Eb

Once upon a time

G# Eb

And then it seemed that everything

Fm Eb

You saw and touched and felt was real

Fm C#

You turned the tap and you turned the wheel

Bbm Eb

Breathing free

Now you search the open evening sky
Trace the memory in your eyes
For the prophet s hard rain and the deluge
Lie in tears around your door
Once there were trees and livestock here
A mother s love, the warnings clear
But you chose to turn away from fear
Breathing free

Now there s a faceless cross on a distant hill
A wasted voice, a silent scream
Where the lovers love and the dreamers dream
You stand and dream alone
You took your sacrifice to the gods of war
Traded your children s lives for a mess of gold
And you beat your ploughshares into swords
Breathing free

Eb G#

Once in a lifetime

C#

You live and love

G#

Once in a lifetime

Eb

You die

G#

Once in a moment

C#

The sun goes down

Fm Eb Fm Eb

Prot-ect a-nd sur-vi - ve

Fm Eb Fm Eb G#

Prot-ect a-nd sur-vi - ve