Runrig - The Message

Intro: A

A

I m going to dance you round the floor

A

Drink you under the tables

F#m

Going to take that last flight home

E

A

To Balivanich in the month of June

A

Go racing up the south ford

A

Turning midnight in the cars

F#m

Waiting up late with the Greenock girls

E

A

Singing every song that made us

E

You take your message to the waters

E

A

And you watch the ripples flow

D

Now somewhere out on the ocean

E

A

Lies our fear should we grow old

A

We re going to lie down on the grass

A

Your lipstick in the clover

F#m

Going the marry Mary in the summertime

E

A

The Atlantic round our shoulders

A

Skies are dawning ound the Langass Barpa

A

Stopped off at the white bridge waters

F#m

It s all crossroads lined with telegraph poles

E

A

A rise of larksong fills the morning

E

You take your message to the waters

E

A

And you watch the ripples flow

D

Now somewhere out on the ocean

E

A

Lies our fear should we grow old

E

You take your message to the waters

E

A

And you watch the ripples flow

D

Now somewhere out on that ocean

E

A

It says Mary please don t go

A

And when we ve wasted all our young years

A

Who s to say we never tried

F#m

To live fast and honour our pledges

E

A

Here we vowed to stay young till we die

A

We drank the life from the last of the bottle

A

We wrote our message out like a prayer

F#m

Then we threw away the message with all our hearts

E

A

Then we watched our lives disappear

(CHORUS)

Enjoy!
