

Avalanche

Ryan Adams

B Abm F# E

I found your photograph, in a cardboard box, in a magazine.

B Abm F# E

I can't remember you, remember us, or anything

F# E

I taught you how to feel but you just feel numb

F# E

They taught you how to feel but you just feel numb

G C* F

She comes apart, in the av-a-lanche

G C* F G C

E

Fades out like a dance crawls back into bed

F# E F# E

When it's over When it's over

F# E F# E

When it's over it's over... .

B Abm F# E

I watch the window and listen for the sound of cars

B Abm F# E

I can't remember the last time that it was yours

F# E

I taught you how to feel why do you feel numb?

F# E

They taught us how to feel but we just feel numb

G C* F

She comes apart, in the av-a-lanche

G C* F G C

E

Fades out like a dance crawls back into bed

F# E F# E

When it's over When it's over

F# E F# E

When it's over it's over... .

G C* F

She falls apart in the av-a-lanche

G C* F G C

E

Fades out like a dance crawls back into bed

F# E F# E

When it's over When it's over

F# E F# E

When it s over it s over... .