Verse 2 & 3 (same chords ans verse 1)

I pulled into Mecklenberg on them trains, into a station that got flooded when they opened up the dams. And broke their connection to the railway lines, so they could blast into the quarry, and for every load of granite, (we got a ton of worry).

One night at the diner, over eggs.
Over easy, she showed me the length of her legs.
But that gold plated cross on her neck it was real,
and you dont get that kind of money from pushing the meal.

wierd, i met you sister and i married her in july.

A G C D E.

But if only to get closer to you, caroline.

Verse 4 & 5 (The Usual Verse chords)

Percy and i moved down the street, until we lost two pretty girls, one was seven, one was three.

Alderman and Caroline owned the house right up the hill, where we laid those babies down, so they could still see our house.

Suspicion got the better of old Alderman Haint.

He owned an autoparts store, off the interstate.

But the lord took him home in July, and then Rose spilt
the beans on the day that he died.

(We was in trouble)

Chorus 2
