

Dear Chicago
Ryan Adams

There seem to be lots of hammer-ons on the g string, second fret, but I m not talented enough to figure out the rest of the picking parts, perhaps someone else could help out? So this is how I play it sounds ok, but please, correct me if I m wrong

Capo 4
Intro: (C)

(C)Dear Chicago,
You ll never guess
You know the girl you said I d meet some day?
Well, I ve got something to confess.
She picked me up on (F) Friday.
Asked me if she reminded me of you.
I just (C) laughed and lit a cigarette,
Said that s impossible to do.
My life s gotten (F) simple since.
But it fluctuates so much.
(C) Happy and sad and back again.
I m not crying out to much.
Think about you (F) all the time.
It s strange and hard to deal.
Think about you (C) lying there.
Those blankets lie so still.
Nothing moves out (Am) here in the cold.
Nothing breathes or even smiles.
I ve been thinking some of (F) suicide.
There s bars out here for miles.
Sorry about the (Am) every kiss.
Every kiss you wasted bad.
I think the thing you (F) said was true,
I m going to die alone and sad. (C)

(C) The wind s feeling real these days.
Baby, it hurt s me some.
Never thought I d feel so blue.
New York City, you re almost gone.
(Asus4) think that I ve (Em) fallen out (F) of love (G),
(Asus4) think that (Em) I ve fallen (F) out of love (G),
(Asus4) I think that (Em) I ve fallen (F) out of love (G),
. . . with you. (C)

I m playing Asus4 as x00230, which may or may not be called that, and may or may not be the correct chord..iit sounds ok to me, not great it s probably wrong...

And the Trusting s getting harder to do...
