D G D

Hello Gracie you re a good little girl

G D A

It s a beautiful world oh and you re out in it

D G I

Last time I saw you playing in the yard

G D

You were running with the children

Α

And the old people were smiling

G D A

Do you miss me, would you know me at all

If you walked by my house

Would you smile and turn the corner?

מ א

Well your kisses only make it feel worse

G

You know you gotta make the best

Of the time God has given you

Bm D G A

I scratched your name into a wall on the beach

D G

With my keys into the side of the pier

Bm D G A

I used to sleep so I would dream that I was lying

D G

With you mid-summer in the grass in the field

Nobody was right, nobody was wrong But somebody had to go G D A Nobody is here, so nobody is gone A G Hello, goodbye, hello D A G D G //// Hello, hello, hello \mathbf{Bm} D G I scratched your name in my arm with my keys G On the beach on the side of the pier G I keep your picture in a frame on the wall G Of my place down the block far enough away It s like I m not here You re in my heart, you re in my soul So I have to let you go G D A You re in my heart, you re in my soul But I ve gotta let you go G D A G Hello, hello, hello, hello D I ve gotta let you go D A G Hello, hello, hello, D A G I ve gotta let you go G I ve gotta let you go Α Goodbye Goodbye G I ve gotta let you go D A Goodbye Goodbye I ve gotta let you go
