Very straightforward. The chords might not be exactly where the lyrics goes, but you ll get the gist of it! :) Enjoy playing

E (goes through A)

E G#m
We belong here, we belong here
A E
Ain t nobody that can tell us we re wrong
E G#m
Help me say, say this to you
A B
I ll stand by your side, to see you through

C#m A E
I promise you that I ll keep you safe from harm
C#m A B
I ll love you all the rest of my days
C#m A E A
When the night is silent and we seem so far away
E B E
Oh I love you but I don t know what to say

E G#m
I was lost, I was lost
A E
Trying to find a balance, caught up in the course
E G#m
Let it go, when I met you
A B
All the clouds inside me parted and the light came shining through

C#m A E
I promise you that I ll keep you safe from harm

C#m                                A                                B
I ll love you all the rest of my days
C#m                                A                                E                                A
When the night is silent and we seem so far away
E                                B                                E
Oh I love you but I don t know what to say

Piano Solo:

C#m                A                E
C#m                A                B

C#m                                A                                E
I promise you that I ll keep you safe from harm
C#m                                A                                B
I ll love you all the rest of my days
C#m                                A                                E                                A
When the night is silent and we seem so far away
E                                B                                E
Oh I love you but I don t know what to say
E                                B                                E
Oh I love you but I don t know what to say
