verse

A D
Pa drove to town yesterday to pick out a grave
A
He found the lot where she d lay
A

Then he drove to old man Ed Sederdoms s place
riff 2 A
To find him some peace

He got there round about twelve
 D
And he stayed till three

 A
And the sun left him down in the valley
 D
But the moon met him up in the hills by the lake
 A
Reflecting the ghost of ma s face

riff 2 A
Suppertime came and went
 D
No one heard from him

Sis left his food on his plate
 D
At the end of the table right next to ma s place
 A
Where nobody sits

Telephone rang about four
 D
My sis answered it
 A
And I felt the news through the floorboards

Like a long sufferin moan
D
Like a wreck on the road
 A
Like a joining of hands

 G D A Shala la la
 G D A Shala la la
 G D A Shalaaa la la
 G D A Shala la la
 G D A Shala la la
 G D A Shala laaa

riff 3 A
So I drove to town yesterday
 D

To pick out his grave

A

I found the lot where they d lay

D

And I drove to old man Ed Sederdoms s place

A

To find me some peace
