

The End
Ryan Adams

The End (Adams/Panes)
From Ryan Adams and the Cardinals " Jacksonville City Nights
Lyrics/Chords transcribed by N. Papador

The song is in a country waltz feel| 3 beats per chord. I ve placed the chord symbols approximately where they coincide with the words.

INTRO

G A G A G A D D

VERSE 1

D G D D
I don't know the sound of my father's voice
D D A A
I don't even know how he says my name
G A Bm G
But it plays out like song on a jukebox in a bar
D D/A A D D
In the back of my head till it's worrying machine

D G D D
And in the cotton fields by the house where I was born
D D A A
The leaves burn like effigies of my kin
G A Bm G
And the trains run like snakes through the Pentecostal pines
D D/A A D D
Filled up with cotton and dime store gin

CHORUS I

Bm Bm G D
Jacksonville, how you burden in my soul
A G Bm Bm
How you hold all my dreams captive
Bm Bm G D
Jacksonville, how you play with my mind
A G
How my heart goes bad
Bm A Bm Bm(n.C.)
Suffocating on the pines in Jacksonville

INTRO

G A G A G A D D
The end the end

Verse 2/Chorus 2 " same chords

