All Choked Up Again - Ryan Bingham - Junky Star
Standard Tuning

Intro: E

E

Iâ€™m all choked up again

A

With these two hands and the rage Iâ€™m in

E

I think I just killed a man

E

I think it was my old man

I hadnâ€™t seen him in years and now heâ€™s bleedinâ€™ tears

E

And his head is in the palm of my hand

E

All choked up again

A

Have you ever met a political man

E

That couldnâ€™t break a pool boyâ€™s chin?

E

And here it all is again

A

Went all in I got stuck in a jam

E

Thatâ€™s what you get when youâ€™re a gamblin man

Thatâ€™s what you get when youâ€™re a gamblinâ€™ man

B

Well everyday you seem to dig a little deeper

A E Into nothinâ€™ that is left behind

Up all night â€™til itâ€™s early in the morningâ€™

A E

And the whole damn worldâ€™s on fire

B

I close my eyes and I wanna start runninâ€™

A E

But my legs are broken and tied

B

Everything around me starts spinninâ€™

A E

And I realized Iâ€™m buried alive

This ainâ€™t no place for kids
But when youâ€™re raised in a bucket of rain
You either die or you learn to swim
You either die or you learn to swim

I just need to see my baby again
She took my hand there from where it began
Said she would love me with trouble I was in
Said she would love me with trouble I was in

Well everyday you seem to dig a little deeper
Into nothinâ€™ that is left behind
Up all night â€™til itâ€™s early in the morningâ€™
And the whole damn worldâ€™s on fire

I close my eyes and I wanna start runninâ€™
But my legs are broken and tied
Everything around me starts spinninâ€™
And I realized Iâ€™m buried alive
Iâ€™m all choked up again
With these two hands and the rage Iâ€™m in
I think I just killed a man

This is how the changes between the E-A and then the A-E work in the song.
