Tuning: Standard (Fast tempo. Hammer fore finger on each chord)

Intro: (4X)

Cadd9, G, Em, Cadd9, G (Harmonica comes in after first measure)

Cadd9 G

When I die lord won't you put my soul up on a train

Cadd9 G

Wonâ€™t you send it Southbound give it a cool bluesman name

Cadd9

I've been lost out on those back roads so many times I ve gone blind ${\bf Cadd9}$

Losing faith in my family had drove me right out my damn mind

Chorus:

Em Cadd9 G

But on the South side of heaven won't you take me home

Em Cadd9 G

Cause I ve been broke down for so long and Lord it s gettin' cold

Short Break: Cadd9, G, Em, Cadd9, G (2X)

Cadd9 G

Well I ve been a desperado in west Texas for so long lord, I need a change

And for ten long years, this old place ain't seen a drop of rain

Cadd9 G

And that wind blows everyday Lord, oh like a desert snow

Cadd9 G

Like a lost bound train, running on cocaine and out of control

Chorus:

Em Cadd9

But on the South side of heaven won't you take me home

Em Cadd9 G

Cause I ve been broke down for so long and Lord it s gettinâ $\mathbf{\mathfrak{E}}^{\mathbf{m}}$ cold

Long Break: Cadd9, G, Em, Cadd9, G (4X, ending midway on Em while starting the next verse)

Play this next verse very slowly:

Em Cadd9 G

Along those Louisiana byways… lonesome highway's rollin' on

Won't you take me where the poor man livesâ€| it's where I call home

Cadd9

And can t you see that a breezeâ \in | is nothinâ \in [™] but a change in pace Cadd9 G...

Money can't buy my soul†| â€~cause it comes from a hard earned place

Kick back up to the standard tempo for the rest of the song:

Chorus: (2X)

Em Cadd9 G

But on the South side of heaven won't you take me home

Em Cadd9 G

Cause I ve been broke down for so long and Lord it s gettinâ \in cold

Outro: Cadd9, G, Em, Cadd9 (Repeat until fade)
