Verse : 1
A                                           D
I new how sad you where and afried to say
A                                                          D
All the words that came inside your head today
            C#m
All the things you never said
                     A
And all the thing s you never did
B                                   A
You ll never stay back again

Pre Chorus:

                        A
You will never hide
                        E
You will be strong
                  C#m
You will not fear
          A know more

Chorus : 1
                                    E
Cause when your wishing on a star
                               C#m
And he knows just who you are
                              A                           B
You believe that someone s coming for you
                        E
Cause your standing tall
                     C#m
Your heart is beating out of control
          A               B                     E
