```
The Story Of Our Lifes
Ryan Hudak
```

```
SONG NAME - The story of our life s
Tabbed by: Ryan Hudak
E-mail guitarhudak@yahoo.com
( Intro ) G , D , G , D , C , D , G
Verse : 1
             D
Are story is just beginning
           D
He was born in bethlehem
                         D
                                                    D
Are life s are changing are life are moving
As fare as we know
Pre Chorus :
It s all by the blood of jesus christ
That he has rising
Chorus : 1
                  C
                                                                     D
For all we know this is our story that God has told us
                                   G
The king has come to save us all
                                                        G
His body s the bread his blood is the wine
                                                                      G
                                                                             D
That the disciples eat and drank every night ( YEAH ) ( YEAH )
( Instrumental ) G , D , G , D , C , D , G
Pre Chorus :
                                         G
Its all by the blood of jesus christ
That he has rising
```

```
Verse : 2
                              D
The story is just beginning
                               D
Jesus was born in a manger
As we been told
As we been told
Chorus : 2
                                                                     D
For all we know this is our story that God has told us
                       C
The king has come to save us all
                                                         G
His body s the bread his blood is the wine
That the disciples eat and drank every night
Bright : ( 4 # )
His body is the bread his love there is know end
His body is the bread his love there is know end
His body is the bread his love there is know end
His body is the bread his love there is know end
                 (2 #)
Chorus : 3
                                                                     D
For all we know this is our story that God has told us
The king has come to save us all
                                                         G
His body s the bread his blood is the wine
that the disciples eat and drank every night
                                                                     D
For all we know this is our story that God has told us
The king has come to save us all
                                                         G
His body s the bread his blood is the wine
That the disciples eat and drank every night
 G
Yeah this is the story of our life s
```

G D

This is the story of our life