Hey. Hey.

D C D C

This world divides us all between who we are and who we can be.
We read the lines that make us feel fine.
Close our eyes and draw the lines on the outside.

D D C D G C

But we could be what we wanna see. Be what we wanna see.

This world divides us all between our party lines and our beliefs.
With that in mind lets all agree to be the change we wanna see.
Lets be what we wanna see. Be what we wanna see.
I propose we be what we wanna see. Be what we wanna see. Yeah.

(Instrumental jam)

C D G C D G

Im not first. I wont be last to say these (words. Say) these words.

C D G C

I know its just a simple (verse. Simple) verse. But sometimes it hurts.

D C D C

This world divides. This world divides. But I believe.

D G C D C

We ll be what we wanna see. Be what we wanna see.
We have to be what we wanna see. Be what we wanna see.
We gotta be what we wanna see. Be what we wanna see.

This world divides. This world dividesâ€¦|..
