Ok this is my 2nd tab, I just thought I d give it a shot because it wasn t up here and a good tune.

It s not 100% correct, but it sounds somewhat like what they play so here ya go. It s a pick-then-strum song so just fiddle around with it and I m sure you ll work it out.

Oh uh Capo on 3rd, but it sounds fine without one too. ENJOY

[Verse]

Am C/B C F

Just fifteen miles from shore

Am C/B C F

I lost the love that I had

Am C/B C F

Slipped and fell into the cold

Am C/B C F

Of the deep and the dark below

Am C/B C F

Big wave, small boat

Am C/B C F

We tipped, I froze

Am C/B C F

My hands were ice, my feet were stone

Am C/B C F

I could not throw the rope

[Verse]

E Am

I caught her eye as she dipped down with a wave

Am C/B C F

I jumped in but I was too late

Am C/B C

Fighting with the currents of the Georgia Strait

Am C/B C F

Fighting with the wind and the tide and the waves

Am C/B C F

I lost my love that day

[Verse]
                                         Αm
I touched her fingers as she breathed out my name
She smiled at me, I watched her fade away
Am C/B
To the deep and the dark of the under wave
To the Currents of the Georgia Strait
[Verse]
Am C/B C
And here it s been ten years to the day
And here I ll sit for a hundred years and I ll wait
Am C/B C
Till I see her smiling face
Am C/B C
Come shining up through the waves
Am C/B C
On the shore, in the rain I ll wait
Am C/B C F
Till I see my love again
[Verse]
Е
I pray to God, I curse my luck, I question my faith
Am C/B C
I curse my empty-hearted fate
Am C/B C
And I curse the wind and the tide and the waves
Am C/B C
And I curse the currents of the Georgia Strait
Am C/B C F
Where I lost my love that day
  C/B C F
Am
Where I lost my heart
Am C/B C
To the curse of the currents of the Georgia Strait
Am C/B C
It s the curse of the currents of the Georgia Strait
