Intro/Verse:

Buried princess, broken borders, silent crimson, raise your hands
To the twilight of the sunset, crystal teeth bury the damned
In the junkyard of a trailer any way you think you can
I m dying in the fatherland
I m a deadhead counting zero, bubblegum stuck on my shoes
Grounded nowhere, open window, painted stranger born to lose
Echo godless counting numbers, it s in everything I do
And every room contains a clue

Chorus:

D Bm
Don t sleep too long, I ll give you something
F#m Bm
For the pain, that you ve been living
D Bm, F#m, Em
I ll make it strong, til you feel something
G, Em A D
I ll give you something to believe in (Intro tab)

Like a daisy trapped in sunshine I ll be patient as I can
In the slow lane intuition follows pictures of the land
Singing words like they were secrets no one ever understands
And it s as empty as my hand
