Red lips, alabaster hands
Ooh girl, what you do to a man
The heat is rising, baby
You don't think, you just follow the herd
And you don't need bullets for a war of words now

They want what we ve got, baby

Light fades, becomes shade
You re holding on but you re slipping away
Till I can t feel you anymore

This is love at the end of the world
There s still love
At the end of the world

There s still love
At the end of the world

enjoy~
