C G D Am
We rode that train all day we didn't get a drop of wine to taste
C G Am
Everybody movin' round my place like bees in a hive
C Am
Like someone famous died

C G D Am
I finally found my common ground as the rain was comin' down
C G Am
All your paintings blackened mouths they didn't make a sound
C G
But they got found out

C G C G
And I'm headin' back to Santa Fe I look back then I look away
C G D
Way that the blue sky fades feels like I'm runnin' away
C G C G
Babe I know you know just 'cause I'm back on the road
Am G D
It don't mean you face don't show in all my dreams and
C G C G C G D
Oh I'll be back for you

C G D Am
You know the way I get when I haven't had my coffee yet
C G Am
Well that's the way I also get when I can't get through
C Am
It's been a month almost two
C G D Am
And I don't live my time like I should but they're killing off my childhood
C G Am
Taking all my heroes babe one by one
C Am
Everyone famous is gone

C G C G
So I'm headin' back to Santa Fe I look back then I look away
C G D
Way that the blue sky fades feels like I'm runnin' away

C G C G
Babe I know you see just how hard it is for me
Am G D
To unpack my clothes and shoes and stay right here with you
C G C G C G D
I don t know how to

Em C G
And it s a hard day
Em C G
And it s a hard night
Em C G
And I can t find the way
D
To make it right

C G C G
So Iâ€™m headin back to Santa Fe I look back then I look away
