

Welcome To Eden
Samia

[Verse 1]

F Bb
God boy gets up and he talks to his friends in the mirror
Bbmaj7 Bb
And he sees my mouth moving where his should be
F
Telling him he is too big for his body
Bbmaj7 Bb Bbmaj7 Bb
That he s got the antidote America needs

F Bb Bb7

[Verse 2]

F Bbmaj7
And so I m talking about drugs and their adverse effects
Bb
Like people do when they ve lost a friend
F
But I think it was me and not the drugs in the end
Bb Bbmaj7 Bb
Cuz God knows I have lost myself a veritable few of them

[Chorus 1]

Dm F G7
Don t let me give you my light it will blind you
Bb Bbmaj7 Bb
I ll love you and leave you there searching to find you
Dm F G Bb
Ain t that what they say at the meetings for those in my wake
F
Well I thought I was Eve but I guess I m the snake

Bb Bbmaj7

[Verse 3]

F
My sister is dead and it s due to my negligence
Bb Bbmaj7 Bb
I buried her good on a New England beach
F
And I ll love her forever but how could she know
Bbmaj7
When I look in her grave and her cold fingers reach up and

F Bb
Rachel, I m sorry for calling you by the wrong name

It was just a suggestion but now

F
It s a small fundamentalist cult-style religion

Bbmaj7
From which you re relieved when you take things away from me

[Chorus 2]

Dm F G7
Babe, full disclosure I m siding with you

Bb
When you said that I left you for dead it was true

Dm F G Bb
So allow me to host the last meeting for those in my wake

Welcome to Eden folks

F
I ll be your snake
